STOCKS MOVING UPWARD

Large Volume of Business, and In-

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.-The Stock Market moved up rapidly on a large volume of business this morning. Interest was generally distributed throughout the market, and there were few exceptions to the common tendency.

Sugar Refining opened materially lower, being affected by yesterday's cuts in the selling prices for the refined article And Tennessee Coal and Iron continued feverish. The last-named stock, however, scored a sharp rally after the opening dealings, and was dealt in well services. Security & Trust. 150%

Opening dealings, and was dealt in well services STOCKS. above last night's final level. Aside from these two instances, advances were general and pronounced.

The bulk of activity was in the railway quarter, but there were also large dealings in American Tobacco, American Steel and Wire, Federal Steel, and the other steel industrials, all of which scored noteworthy advances. In the railway list, Union Pacific was conspicuously strong, and substantial advances were scored in St. Paiul, Burlington and Quincy and the granger group general'y. Quincy and the granger group general'y.

The anthracite coal stocks were not conspicuous in the dealings.
The London market for American stocks showed irregular changes.
No change was made today in the Bank of England's minimum rate of discount, which requires the results was supported by the control of the control which remains at 4 per cent. This was assumed to indicate that the bank was assured to indicate that the bank was assured that there was no immediate prospect of gold shipments to this side.

FINANCIAL.

Not the Same

There is a certain young actress now in town who is now coping with the role of an ultraswagger society woman in one of the current attractions. At the first performance two male friends of hers were discussing her work.

Said the first one, "Great Scott! But she is working hard to be a grande dame." "Yes," replied the other, "Dut so far she has only succeeded in being damn grand."

We quote from a N. Y. paper and note, that to get the proper play upon words, you must have the true French pronunciation. As
